

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., MARCH 28, 1882.

We hear it all about the town,
The Mason County Guards, Have disagreed, and some of them Have asked withdrawal cards.
The very air is sulphurous, Caused by a sight of "cussing," But Major Allen's coming down To make 'em stop the fussing.

Good seed corn is said to be very scarce all over the State.

The Morning Mail is expected to resume her place in this trade next Monday.

FIFTY visiting cards neatly printed can be had at this office for twenty-five cents.

A new and reliable Kid Glove Cleaner is for sale at Pecor's drug store. It is odorless and works like a charm. mlml

Our correspondent at Washington writes that it is generally supposed the peaches there have been killed by the late cold weather.

There will be a masquerade ball at the Bank Hotel, at Vanceburg, on Friday, the 31st inst. The BULLETIN acknowledges an invitation to be present.

The Louisville Post says: It is said that Brother Barnes will spend his time till July in the towns in the neighborhood of Maysville, and will then go to Cumberland Gap and hold a camp meeting.

CAPT. J. C. AGNEW, of the steamer Return, proposes to run his boat through to this city every Saturday, to accommodate travelers who desire to come to Maysville that day, there being no other boat down.

The peace of Maysville was never better. The police force are called upon to make few arrests and no serious infraction of the laws has occurred for some time past. Our community is getting to be a model one.

MAJOR J. R. ALLEN, who has been detailed to investigate the trouble among the Mason County Guards, will arrive here to-morrow, and will be present at the meeting of the company to be held tomorrow evening.

The Lexington Transcript says:
A scandal is agitating the First Baptist Church in this city, a prominent member of that society having been accused of improper intimacy with a girl hired to keep his house while his wife was ill. The girl is now a mother; and the ease is based on the assumption that her employer is the father of the infant. A church court will likely investigate, as to the truth or falsity of the charge.

The Lewis County Sunday School Convention is organizing for summer work.
Hon. George T. Halbert, is President; Col. W. S. Rand, Secretary, and Mr. Lon.
Jones, Treasurer. The pastors of the churches throughout the county have been made Vice Presidents. The season's programme will be most interesting and enjoyable.

BUCK DAVIS, a deck hand on the tow-boat Robert Peebles, a few days ago, was sick and went to the home of his brother-in-law, James Jordan, in the east end of Lewis county. Dr. W. H. Campbell who attended him pronounces the disease small-pox. We are informed that there is no danger of the malady spreading as the necessary precautions to isolate the case have been taken.

J. SPLAN will start out from Cleveland, O., this spring, with the following stable: Mattie Hunter, one of the bright lights in the pacing galaxy; and the trotters, Wilbur F., 2:24; Lady Brownell, 2:25; Belle of Lexington, 2:26; and King Wilkes, a very fast and well-behaved young stallion, by George Wilkes; owned by Mr. R. B.
Conklin. He intends to open his campaign at the Cincinnati Spring Meeting, and will be at the meeting here on the 16th of May.

Spring Meeting of the Maysville Trotting Club.

A correspondent writing to the BULLETIN from Vanceburg makes the following inquiries:

VANCEBURG, KY., March 27, 1882.

The BULLETIN posters of the races beginning on the 16th day of May, at the Maysville fair grounds, attract much attention and elicit many earnest inquiries. In compliance with the request of many persons here the BULLEtin will please answer the following:
1st. Will ladies attend the races?
2nd. Will families unattended by male escorts be protected as if attending the fair?
3rd. Will there be conveyances to the grounds, and what will be the admission price for families?
4th. Will there be police regulations similar to the well-established rules of the fair Association?
It is important that these questions should be answered, because our people are not informed, and measure the modern trotting course by the standard of horse-racing in the olden time.
LEWIS.

The communication of our correspondent has been submitted to the officers of the association, and from the information obtained we are able to reply as follows:

1st. There will be a large attendance by the ladies—it is expected to be a leading feature of the meeting.

2nd. Families unattended by male escorts, will receive every needed attention, and are assured of perfect protection.

3rd. Visitors will be conveyed to the grounds by steamboats, carriages, stages, etc. at a very moderate cost. The price of admission has not yet been fixed, but we have been assured it will be what is usually charged on occasions of this kind.

4th. There will be a regular police system in operation and a force amply large to preserve perfect order, and it is the intention of the management to see that the best order is maintained. There will probably be a Justice of the Peace on the grounds during the entire meeting.

From General Headquarters.

The following general orders have been issued by General Nuckols:

HEADQUARTERS KENTUCKY STATE GUARD, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, FRANKFORT, March 8, 1882.

General Orders, No. 5.

1. In obedience to the adjointed Executive order, the Inspector General will, at such times and places as may designate in Special Orders, inspect the several commands of the Kentucky State Guard, their arms equipments, and armories.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
FRANKFORT, February 24, 1882.

Executive Orders, No. 1.

The Inspector General is hereby directed to make a minute inspection of the Kentucky State Guard, its arms, accoutrements, equipments and armories during the current year, with the view to a more complete organization and the preservation of public property. Said inspection will be held at such times as the Inspector General can most conveniently visit the several commands. He will make a report in detail to the Commander in Chief, [Signed.] LUKE P. BLACKBURN, Governor.

2. One day's pay will be allowed and paid out of the military fund, the same as for active service, for each officer, non-commissioned officer and soldier present at the stated inspection. Pay rolls will be prepared and certified by commanding officers and forwarded to the Adjutant within twenty days after the inspection, and payment made thereafter as soon as the military fund is collected.

By order of the Governor.
J. P. NUCKOLS, Adj. Gen.

Death of Fairfax Willett.

A telegram received here to-day announced the death at St. Louis this morning, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr.
King, of Mr. Fairfax Willett, an old and well-known citizen of Maysville. Mr.
Willett was born in Maryland and was brought by his parents to this city when a child. He was eighty-three years of age and removed to St. Louis about a year ago. Four children survive him, Mrs.
Duncan and Mrs. King, of St. Louis, and Henry and Robert Willett, of this city.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. James Cassaday, the enterprising stock trader of Vanceburg, has been laid up for some time with a crippled leg.

Miss Bertie Cobb, a charming young lady from Nashville, Tenn., who has been visiting her relatives in East Maysville, returned home Saturday. The boys are very disconsolate over her departure.

It stands the farmers in hand to be careful in selecting seed from which to grow tobacco plants. The most experienced growers of tobacco attribute their success to the quality of seed they use, and it would be greatly to the advantage of all to heed the example. Pure seed can be obtained from D. A. Richardson & Co., of this city.

The third quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. Church, South, on next Saturday and Sunday, Rev. J. W. Fitch, presiding elder. Mr. Fitch is one of the clerical delegates elected by the Kentucky Conference to the General Conference which meets in Nashville, Tenn, in May next. He is an earnest preacher and is held in high esteem by the people of Maysville.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court since our last report:

Nora Shannon and others, to James Burger, house and lot on south side of Third street, below Wall, Maysville, Ky. Consideration $540.
William Bryson and wife to Patrick Bryson, a tract of land on Maysville and Blue Run Turnpike, containing eight acres more or less. Consideration, $1,200.

G. W. Blatterman, Jr., and wife to Joseph A.
Diener, lot 30x120 feet, on North side of Second street, in fifth ward of Maysville. Consideration $700.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

To the Military.

The members of the Mason County Guards are hereby notified to meet at their Armory on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, to consider business of importance.
A. C. RESPESS, Captain.

COUNTY POINTS.

GERMANTOWN.

The pike on Broadway, is being repaired.
E. T. Currans of Mattoon, Illinois, is visiting relatives here.

Several colored members of the M. E. Church were immersed at Mr. Patterson's pond last Sunday.

Agents for wire fencing were in our community recently.

Elder J. C. Walden, made a flying visit to our town last week.

Rev. Boatman, of Augusta, Ky., preached at the M. E. Church, last Saturday and Sunday nights.

Mrs. Amos Turney, of Paris, is visiting her brother L. H. Mannen.

William Butcher and Miss Mollie Gallagher, were married last Thursday evening by Rev.
J. W. Spates.

Thomas Hutchings, of Nova Scotia will deliver a temperance lecture on Saturday evening April 1st. Everybody is cordially invited.

It seems as though the interest of our little town is on the decline. One by one, our citizens begin to sell out and leave for other places. Maysville has already gained several of our citizens, and will be increased by several more in the near future.

"Jones" still storms our "Hungry Hill," And "Dad" still holds the corner, While Hal's affected with a singular pail, And "Cab" continues to mourn 'er.

"Kit's" still warms the Maysville pike, And meets with Coburn to parley, While "Crifty" takes an opposite strike, And Bacon's reserved for Charley.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last—No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr.
Williams (an Indian remedy) called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electrics do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Pile Ointment: I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment.

ceipt of price, $1.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a drug-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.

all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment and was cured by a few applications.
